

WHY TAKE POT LUCK?

If you are planning building works, it's important that the firm you entrust with the job has a proven track record and can handle everything with professionalism and integrity. Building works these days is all about technical compliance and a myriad of regulations, so choosing your builder should never be left to chance.

ABOUT US

Lambford Building Services are a Norwich-based firm (part of Lambford Homes Ltd.) specialising in residential extensions, remodelling and renovation. As a family business with some 50 years of experience, we have a long list of satisfied clients and a reputation for going the extra mile to ensure your satisfaction.

It's often best to have an initial discussion before everything is finalised, as we can advise you on the most cost-effective way to achieve your goals whether it's choice of materials, project duration, design considerations, insurance or security. Getting these right from the outset is a great start to a successful project.

We welcome enquiries at any time and will be pleased to provide you with a quotation and the benefit of our considerable experience, without placing you under any obligation.
